

The Diversity Task Group of Arlington's Vision 2020 and True Story Theater invite YOU to participate in:

Being an active Bystander workshop

Wednesday, May 25th, 2016, 7pm

At the Arlington Center for the Arts, 41 Foster St. Arlington, MA

- Explore situations where we have (or might) witness violence or mistreatment
- See True Story Theater ensemble members reflect moments from your lives
- Gain a broader perspective on the pivotal role of a bystander to shift a situation
- Practice ways to become an active and empowered bystander

Facilitated by Dr. Maureen Scully of U. Mass Boston, along with True Story Theater

REGISTER: <https://beinganactivebystander.eventbrite.com> or email: Amber@truestorytheater.org

This training is co-sponsored by the Arlington Center for the Arts, Arlington Commission on Disability, Arlington Council on Aging, Arlington Human Rights Commission, Housing Corporation of Arlington, and Mystic LGBTQ+ Youth Support Network.

ARLINGTON'S LIVING BROCHURE • TELLING OUR STORIES • BUILDING COMMUNITY
Arlington's Living Brochure is a two-year project to create a more inclusive town through theater and the arts. Check out TrueStoryTheater.org for the schedule of performances and workshops offered every month.

Arlington thrives because of its volunteers.

Arlington's Living Brochure makes visible the work of the town's volunteer committees, including Vision 2020, the Human Rights Commission, Sustainable Arlington, the Commission on Disability, the Diversity Task Group, Arlington Public Art, and others. This project is funded in part by the National Endowment for the Arts, with support from the Robbins Library, ACMi, and local artist Nilou Moochhala.
