Stories of Stigma

brought to life by Arlington's improv ensemble: True Story Theater

Tuesday, May 10, 2016, 7:00 - 8:45pm
at The Robbins Library, Community Room
700 Mass Ave, Arlington. Wheelchair accessible

Many of us have experienced feeling stigmatized or shamed in some aspect of our lives, past or present. Sometimes we have inadvertently added to the shame or stigma of others. What have we learned from these experiences? What enables connection and healing?

At True Story Theater events, audience members spontaneously share moments from their lives based on a the evening's theme. Actors then instantly portray the heart of each story using music, movement, and dialogue. Anyone is welcome to share a personal story on the theme. It's also fine to come just to watch the performance.

This performance is co-sponsored by the Arlington Center for the Arts, Arlington Commission on Disability, Arlington Council on Aging, Arlington Human Rights Commission, Housing Corporation of Arlington, Robbins Library and Mystic LGBTQ+ Youth Support Network.

ARLINGTON'S LIVING BROCHURE • TELLING OUR STORIES • BUILDING COMMUNITY

Arlington's Living Brochure is a two-year project to create a more inclusive town through theater and the arts. Check out TrueStoryTheater.org for the schedule of performances and workshops.

Arlington thrives because of its volunteers. Come be one of them!

Arlington's Living Brochure makes visible the work of the town's volunteer committees, including Vision 2020, the Human Rights Commission, Sustainable Arlington, the Commission on Disability, the Diversity Task Group, Arlington Public Art, and others. This project is funded in part by the National Endowment for the Arts, with support from the Robbins Library, ACMi, and local artist Nilou Moochhala.
